Point System	Add point system to record times
User	Home

Interface

Types of

Reporting

Analytics

Users can leave reviews users with more points have a greater effect on the average wait time at a listed location have users make accounts to track credibility

Login page

implement

grub hub

Screen

Separate tabs

depending on

Sends notifications when dining locations aren't busy restrictions to

establishment

comment system

elevator

wait times

Connect CarolinaCard

laundry

wait times

push notifications for wait times have items with certain foods or

pictures so people can see pictures of

gym equipment ect

based on places they recently visit owners can ask for workers

edit their own

pages possibly

other options

Give users

line visual categorys for

types of

lines(food,

gym, mail)

dining locations owner's section of the website where they can report the own wait times and such information

Search

bar for

for different businesses types of serviced establishment different wait Time times implement How can we google maps make users for easy report times? direction to locations

How will we measure wait times at gyms

Request user's location to make sure they're not reporting wait times on locations they aren't at?

How can we ensure entered times are accurate notifications updates on status of line every given amount of time.

get line info for gyms, food. & mail.

have certain location not show up when their closed

Check prices for food being served

order

Tell users what food is being served

Add wait time analytics for users with enough points ratings for places with lines descriptions for establishments

Show the busiest hours at dining locations on a given day

Ingredients in the food served at each location have statistics that show traffic for different days and hours of the day report if certain items are out of stock